Scouting & Managing Locations

is a natural in our business. If you've been around the Mid-West as long as we have, we just might know what you are looking for.

You just have to know where to go, who to talk to and when to get the right image! We do Location Scouting for Film, Video, Photography and even the Web. Let us help you make your project a success, getting the locations you need! When your production is riding on getting the best location for the buck, Haller Concepts won't let you down.

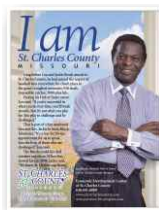

Our philosophy at Haller Concepts is simple:

Customer satisfaction comes first, getting paid comes second!

Let our crew handle traffic, permits, parking, location fees, and even talent holding areas. Our professional talented individuals provide a variety of different services to keep the lines of communication strong, with the clients we are serving. Posting your locations on the web is a cinch. Let us bring St. Louis to you!
